

Municipal Health Office

Address: José Antonio Echavarría Street No. 123 between Ave. José Martí and Patricio Lubumba

Municipal Director: Dr. Geovanis Castellanos Sánchez.
First Degree Specialist in General Integral Medicine.

Assistant Professor

Vice Municipal Director: Dr. Yilmer Aguilera Peña.
First Degree Specialist in General Integral Medicine

Services provided

- Emergency Medical Service.
- Service of Diagnostic Means (Clinical Laboratory, Microbiology and SUMA Laboratory)
- X-ray service.
- Hospitalization Rooms Service (Medicine, Pediatrics, Gynecology and UTC)
- Ultrasound service.
- Electrocardiography service.
- Minor Surgery Service.
- Comprehensive Rehabilitation Service.
- Genetics Service.
- Social Assistance and Senior Service.
- Outpatient Service (Ophthalmology, Orthopedics and Traumatology, Dermatology, Adult Psychiatry, Child Psychiatry, Endocrinology, Geriatrics, Gynecology, Physiatry, Pediatrics, Internal Medicine)
- Menstrual Regulation and Pre-Regulation Service.
- Family Planning Service.
- Infertility Service.
- Nursing Service.
- Vaccination service.
- Sterilization service.

Goals and Indicators for the current year:

- To increase the population's health status and satisfaction with services.
- To strengthen hygiene, epidemiology and microbiology actions.
- Exercise health regulation.
- Consolidate the strategies of education, training and research.

- Comply with the different modalities of exporting services and international cooperation of the Cuban health system.
- To increase rationality and economic efficiency in the sector.

Municipal Health Office Building

The Municipal Health Directorate, an organizational unit that groups functions and activities to meet specific objectives related to the policy of the Ministry of Public Health in terms of administration, medical care, teaching and research in the territory with the human and material resources available to it and with the application of community participation and intersectoriality. It works on the constant improvement of the population's health status and its satisfaction by guaranteeing the provision of excellent services in the territory based on the analysis of the health situation.

It is located in Calle José Antonio Echavarría No. 123 between José Martí Ave. and Patricio Lubumba, which, in order to fulfill its mission, has a network of health institutions, among which the following stand out: 4 polyclinics, with 60 Family Doctor and Nurse offices, 1 Hospital, 1 Municipal Hygiene and Epidemiology Unit (UMHE), 1 Stomatology Clinic, 1 Nursing Home and 1 Grandparents' Home. To attend a dispensed population of 54,160 inhabitants.

Buenaventura Polyclinic

The polyclinic is the main institution of our health system; it is in charge of promoting, protecting and restoring the health of its population. To this end, it provides comprehensive health care services for the individual, the family, the community and the environment with a biopsychosocial approach where teaching, medical care, hygiene, epidemiology and research are combined as indissoluble elements of the same process. Its purpose is to contribute to the continuous improvement of the population's health status by integrating the actions of health area institutions. It has 35 family medical offices, distributed in the 6 popular councils to attend a dispensed population of 31 855 inhabitants.

Services provided by the Polyclinic of Buenaventura

Ultrasound service.

Electrocardiography service.

Minor Surgery Service.

Comprehensive Rehabilitation Service.

Genetics Service.

Social Assistance and Senior Service.

Outpatient Service (Ophthalmology, Orthopedics and Traumatology, Dermatology, Adult Psychiatry, Child Psychiatry, Endocrinology, Geriatrics, Gynecology, Physiatry, Pediatrics, Internal Medicine)

Menstrual Regulation and Pre-Regulation Service.

Family Planning Service.

Infertility Service.

Nursing Service.

Vaccination service.

Sterilization service.

Polyclinic of Mir “Ernesto Che Guevara”

This polyclinic has 7 family doctors' offices, distributed in the 2 popular councils to attend a dispensed population of 7 804 inhabitants.

Services provided by the Polyclinic of Mir

Emergency Service (24 hour guard force).

Clinical Laboratory Service.

X-Ray Service

Electrocardiography service.

Comprehensive Rehabilitation Service.

Stomatology Service.

Social Assistance and Senior Service.

Outpatient Service (Internal Medicine, Pediatrics, Gynecology, Genetics and Ophthalmology)

Family Planning Service.

Nursing Service.

Vaccination Service.

Sterilization Service.

Polyclinic of Vista Hermosa

This polyclinic has 11 family doctors' offices, distributed in the three popular councils to serve a dispensed population of 8,046 inhabitants.

Services provided by the Vista Hermosa Polyclinic

Emergency Service (24 hour guard force).

Clinical Laboratory Service.

Ultrasound Service.

Electrocardiography Service.

Integral Rehabilitation Service.

Stomatology Service.

Social Assistance and Senior Service.

Outpatient Service (Internal Medicine, Pediatrics, Gynecology and Genetics)

Family Planning Service.

Nursing Service.

Vaccination Service.

Sterilization Service.

Polyclinic of San Agustín

This polyclinic has 7 family doctors' offices, distributed in 1 popular council to attend a dispensed population of 7 011 inhabitants.

Services provided by the San Agustín Polyclinic

- Emergency Service (24 hour guard force).
- Clinical Laboratory Service.
- Electrocardiography Service.
- Comprehensive Rehabilitation Service.
- Stomatology Service.
- Social Assistance and Senior Service.
- Outpatient Service (Internal Medicine, Paediatrics and Gynaecology)
- Family Planning Service.
- Nursing Service.
- Vaccination Service.
- Sterilization Service.

Municipal Hospital “Nicodemus Regalado León”

Our hospital is an entity of the National Health System in charge of providing uninterrupted medical and specialized nursing, curative and rehabilitation care to hospitalized patients from our territory, integrating with other institutions of the system in the protection of the population's health. Its purpose is to meet the hospitalization needs of the population in our territory with the highest quality and rational use of resources; to this end, it has 52 beds distributed among the medical (19), paediatric (8) and obstetric (25) services.

The hospital provides the following services.

Emergency Medical Service (Duty Corps, Municipal Intensive Area and Observation Service).

Electrocardiogram service.

Service of Diagnostic Means.

Clinical Laboratory.

Microbiology

SUMA Laboratory.

X-Ray Service

Hospitalization Rooms Service

Medicine

Pediatrics.

OB-GYN.

UTC.

Municipal Unit of Hygiene and Epidemiology

The Municipal Unit of Hygiene and Epidemiology in Calixto Garcia is a budgeted unit administratively subordinated to the Municipal Directorate and methodologically to the Provincial Center of Hygiene and Epidemiology. Its mission is to maintain a stable hygienic-epidemiological framework throughout the territory, reducing the incidence and prevalence of communicable and non-communicable diseases according to the indicators established by the programs, changing lifestyles and making efficient use of human and material resources so that the satisfaction of the population is the final result.

Stomatology Clinic

The Stomatology Clinic, an institution with human and material resources in charge of providing primary and secondary ambulatory stomatology care with a high scientific and technical level to patients, family and community including health promotion, disease prevention, cure, rehabilitation and emergency actions. The care model is organized based on the analysis of the health situation through oral health teams integrated into basic work groups and the health area. Its purpose is to satisfy the needs of dental care demanded by the state of health of the population of our territory with the highest quality and rational use of resources.

The dental services have twelve care units divided between the health areas of Mir, San Agustín, Vista Hermosa and the municipal capital.

Old People's Home “José Miro Argenter”

The Nursing Home is an Institution of our system that is in charge of the integral and continuous attention of the institutionalized elderly people, who due to diverse medical and/or social causes cannot maintain an autonomous life in close relationship with the family and the community, with the cooperation of other institutions, assumes the social commitment to improve the quality of life of the patients, workers and reaches the excellence in the services for greater satisfaction of the users. Its aim is to satisfy the needs of these patients with high quality and the rational use of resources. It has a capacity of 20 internal places and 5 daytime places.

Grandparents' House “Los Zapaticos de Rosa”

The grandparents' house is a social institution that provides comprehensive daytime care to those elderly people who lack any filial protection whatsoever or whose relatives are unable to care for them during the day. Their characteristics are that they are patients who find it difficult to carry out the activities of daily life with instruments and maintain the basic functional capacities to perform the activities of daily life. Its purpose is to satisfy the needs of these people that guarantee their health status with the provision of quality services. It has a capacity of 30 daytime places.